

READINGS FOR THIS SUNDAY FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Isaiah 66:10-14c

Isaiah instructs the people of Jerusalem to rejoice, because God would restore her prosperity. The people will better understand God's power through their homeland's restoration.

Second Reading: Galatians 6:14-18

Paul describes the sign of the cross of Jesus as all that is significant. Following the old laws is unimportant. Instead, being baptized in Christ and adhering to his ideals is what matters most.

Gospel: Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

Jesus sent forth seventy-two disciples to preach his good news, telling them "the harvest is rich, but the workers few." He also gave them detailed instructions on how to act towards the people. Jesus then reminded them not to be happy because of their power over evil, but to rejoice in the salvation they would achieve.

Dear Parishioner,

As we begin the summer season, I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your generosity these past couple of months. The Fundraiser Breakfast for Deacon John, and your donations to assist him, were tremendously uplifting.

John and Marianne were so touched, and it's understandable why tears of appreciation were shed. Continue to keep him in your prayers on the road to his recovery. John is looking forward to his return to active ministry.

Fr. Jose' Anniversary celebration was a special occasion, not only for the parish, but for his family and the extended Indian Catholic Community.

Fr. Jose was so happy and appreciative of the love and warmth he felt that weekend.

As Fr. Jose' brothers were leaving to return to India, they thanked me for taking care of their brother. I said, "you have it backwards," Jose takes care of me!" Also, I would like to thank Bonnie Vadino and Chris Reilly and members of the Pastoral Council Social Committee, who organized these two events.

Lastly, in the Fall of this year, we will introduce Parish Electronic Giving. Many parishes have this available for the convenience of people donating directly from their banks to the collection. More information will be coming.

Don't forget your House of Charity contributions. Our goal is $94,538, which is significantly lower than last year's. Also, if we exceed last year's collection amount of $85,943 and reach this year's goal, the parish will receive 25% of that amount. The incentive will greatly benefit our parish financials.

Again, thank you for all your generous stewardship efforts, and have a relaxing and safe summer.

God Bless,
Fr. Jim
