

READINGS FOR THIS SUNDAY
TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Exodus 17:8-13

Amalek and his people attacked the Israelites, so Moses instructed Joshua to lead some of the Israelites into battle the next day. While Moses kept his hands raised in prayer, the Israelites were winning. But when he put his hands down, they would begin to lose. So two others helped him keep his hands raised, and Joshua and the Israelites won the battle.

Second Reading: 2 Timothy 3:14—4:2

Paul tells Timothy that the Scriptures are inspired by God and are an excellent tool in teaching others about God's expectations of his people. Knowledge of the Scriptures, coupled with faith in Jesus, will lead many people to salvation. Paul urges Timothy to continue preaching the gospel, although this will sometimes be a difficult task.

Gospel: Luke 18:1-8

Jesus speaks about a corrupt judge who lacked respect for either God or man. A widow repeatedly asked him to settle a case in her favor. He finally settled the case, only because he grew weary of listening to her requests. Jesus points out that if even this corrupt judge eventually listened, then God, who is just, will certainly answer the pleas of his people.

Seasonal Advent Recipes, 100% Guaranteed to be Awesome

ADVENT Season

What's the recipe for peacefulness that we often forget about? Advent! We hurry quickly to Christmas, and almost the next day stores rush to take down decorations and get ready for Valentine's Day! If we let it, Advent can be a time to let go of our grasp on things that distract us from Jesus. Advent reminds us to prepare peacefully for this coming Christmas, but also to prepare for the day of Jesus' second coming!

We are offering two opportunities to chill out and enrich your preparation during this Holy Season....

1st Annual CHRISTMAS CAROL FESTIVAL

Come with family and friends to celebrate Christmas the old fashioned way, singing holy carols that are near and dear to us! Adults and children are invited to bring bells to play along. Also, kindly bring your Baby Jesus from your crèche/manger to be blessed if you wish.

Please bring new scarves, mittens, hats or gloves (children or adult sizes) as a donation.

1st Advent Carol Festival: Sunday, Dec. 8 at 3:00pm in the church.

Advent Chill Out Nights:

“Be Still and Know that I am God: The Extravagance of Being ‘Unbusy’”

These two nights will be presented by Michelle Francl-Donnay, spiritual writer as well as a professor of chemistry. Michelle gives retreats as well as blogs on life, laundry, prayer and God in the midst of being a wife, mom and teacher. She writes regularly for the Philadelphia Archdiocese’s CatholicPhilly.com, and contributes to Give Us This Day, The Liguorian and Loyola Press’ Ignatian Spirituality site.

Michelle’s topic, Be Still and Know that I am God: The Extravagance of Being “Unbusy,” will help us catch our breath with God during our overflowing holiday calendars. Join us for one night or both nights!

2nd Advent Gathering: Monday, Dec. 16 and Tuesday, Dec. 17 at 7:00pm in the church.

Recipes that Never Tasted so Fresh & Different

World Religions Series

Since religious beliefs and rituals are an integral part of every culture, it’s inspiring to learn how religions compare, contrast and connect with one another. Through these insights, our faith can deepen and help us understand better the fact that all human beings long for God in one way or another!
