READINGS FOR THIS SUNDAY

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Deuteronomy 4:1-2, 6-8

Moses tells the people to always observe the statutes God has given them, without adding or subtracting from these laws. He reminds them that the law is just, and that any nation who heard their statutes would consider them a wise nation.

Second Reading: James 1:17-18, 21b-22, 27

James discusses the gifts that God has given to all people and implores them to respond by welcoming the words of truth that can save them. He emphasizes that through good deeds and pure conduct, our faith in God is proven to him.

Gospel: Mark 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23

The Pharisees observed some of Jesus' disciples eating without first purifying their hands and ask the disciples why they are going against their ancestor's traditions. Jesus responds that nothing from the outside can make a person impure. The only true evil, acts such as fornication, murder, and greed among others, come from within and make a person impure.

May your grace and love help our families in every part of the world be united to one another in fidelity to the Gospel.

May the example of the Holy Family, with the aid of your Holy Spirit, guide all families, especially those most troubled, to be homes of communion and prayer to always seek your truth and live in your love.

Through Christ our Lord, Amen.

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, Pray for us!

Adults are taught that children have the right to be safe, strong and free. CAP 1 is for new volunteers and employees.

CAP 2 is called No More Bullies, No More Victims and is a workshop addressing bullying awareness and bullying prevention. Cyber-bullying is also presented.

CAP 3 is called Cyber-Empowerment and is a workshop which promotes adults understanding of cyber activity of youth while teaching them realistic ways to help children keep their own rights and guard the rights of others in the cyber-sphere.

Each presentation is 90 minutes.

40 Days of Francis: Day 27

Pope Francis quote of the week: "In a world where there is so much wealth, so many resources to feed everyone, it is unfathomable that there are so many hungry children, that there are so many children without an education, so many poor persons. Poverty today is a cry."

Knot of the week: In New Jersey, 31% of low income households spend more than 50% of total income on housing. Often, families must choose between paying rent, paying utilities or buying adequate food.

Thank you to all who came out to an open house with Catholic Charities last week! We enjoyed the opportunity to get to meet you, and thank you for all of your support. We continue our 40 Day preparation for the visit of Pope Francis to Philadelphia. Visit your local Catholic Charities center to learn about ways to get involved or visit us online at CatholicCharitiesCamden.org/40Days.

August 10, 2015

Dear Parish Nurse:

I hope this letter finds you well. I am asking for your help in the development of a very important new outreach program for our parish.

As a vibrant faith community, we have grown by helping each other in our faith journey over the years through service ministries such as the St. Vincent DePaul Society, Knights of Columbus, Youth Ministry, Adult Faith Formation, Social Justice and Visiting the Sick and Homebound. In addition, our Hospitality and Liturgical Ministries have also made invaluable contributions to St. Simon Stock Parish.

All of these ministries have one thing in common: parishioners who are willing to prayerfully consider sharing their gifts for the benefit of fellow parishioners. That is why I'm writing to you today. Our lay leadership, with support from the diocese, has been asked to explore the development of a parish nursing ministry.

In our diocese, the practice of parish nursing is guided by the American Nurses' Association (ANA) Faith Community Nursing Scope and Standards of Practice (2005). Roles that a parish nurse assumes within a parish are influenced by the needs of the community and the expertise of the parish nurse[s]. Such a ministry would serve our own parish in a number of ways. Some of the roles that are based on the ANA Guidelines are health counselor, health educator, referral agent, advocate, integrator of faith and health, and coordinator of volunteer services.

I am not asking you to volunteer at this time; only to come to an informational meeting which will be held on Tuesday, September 29th at 7:30 PM in the Parish Meeting Center so that you can help us assess if a ministry is needed in our parish. If there is enough support from nurses like you, then we will determine how to move forward together.

Please take a moment to consider attending the September 29th. informational meeting and reach out to me either by phone or email. If you have any questions please feel free to contact me as well. Thanks for your consideration in this important ministry.

Sincerely,

Deacon John
