

PASTORAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Holy Week and Easter Sunday

What a beautiful and prayerful Holy Week and Easter celebrations we experienced here at St. Simon Stock Parish. It took the work of many in our parish family. Thank you to our Art and Environment Committee for dramatically changing our church environment from Lent to Palm Sunday through the Easter Triduum and to the joys of Easter Sunday. It was and is so beautiful and fitting.

Joyous thanks to our Music Ministry. Their dedication and hours of preparation is unmatched. The Junior Choir, the Contemporary Group, Adult Choir, cantors and musicians filled us with song that so matched the celebrations. Our Triduum was awesome. Thank you for the joy of your ministry and music.

Thank you to all of those who participating in the planning, the numerous lectors, procession participants, EMs, Altar Servers and Streamers. You rounded out the need to make all of this happen.

Lastly to Fr. Jose and Deacons John, Joe, and Bob thank you for your gift of your priesthood.

Fr. Jim

From Archbishop Joseph E. Kurtz, President of the USCCB

Today the people of God must speak up for our brothers and sisters facing genocide in the Middle East. I urge every Catholic to sign the petition at www.stopthechristiangenocide.org. As people of faith, we must convince the United States Department of state to include Christians in any formal declaration of genocide

For months, the Catholic Church has been a voice for Christians and other religious minorities facing the evil of deadly persecution. Now, the State Department is expected to make a decision within days. A resolution, H. Con. Res. 75, is also gaining bipartisan support in Congress. Please make sure your name is added to the witness. The very future of the ancient Christian presence in the Middle East is at stake.

We Welcome:

Please pray for those who were fully initiated into the Catholic Church during the Easter Vigil:

(Baptism, Confirmation and Communion)

READINGS

READINGS FOR THIS SUNDAY SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER

First Reading: Acts 5:12-16

The people held the apostles in great esteem and brought sick people to them to be healed. Although some were afraid to be known, the number of Jesus' followers continued to grow steadily.

Second Reading: Revelation 1:9-11a, 12-13, 17-19

John depicts a vision of lamp-stands of gold and one like the Son of Man in a robe with a sash of gold. This apparition told John he had nothing to fear and then described himself as one who was dead but now lived again. He then instructed John to record any other visions he might have.

Gospel: John 20:19-31

Jesus appeared to the disciples and breathed on them saying, "Receive the Holy Spirit." He gives them the power to forgive people's sins or hold them accountable. Thomas, who was not present, refused to believe Jesus had appeared until he came to them once more. Jesus told Thomas to believe and added, "Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed."

STEWARDSHIP

STEWARDSHIP

"Jesus said to them again, 'Peace be with you. As the father has sent me, so I send you.'"

Peace – the first gift of the risen Lord. Just as Jesus sent the apostles out into the world to share His peace and Good News, so too, He sends His Stewards. As disciples of Jesus, we are called to be grateful and generous. We should look for opportunities to share His peace with our brothers and sisters not only within our local parish boundaries, but outside of them as well. In giving, you will receive the peace of Christ.

Mrs. Raiker

I also wanted to share with the parish the following email:

"There were probably many, many people involved with this marvelous performance last night, and I congratulate everyone. It was meaningful, inspiring, and entertaining. The actors, the choir, the speakers, the stage crew, the musicians, those who printed the pamphlets...for everyone, your staff included, since I learned of the performance from the church bulletin...thank you for all your efforts in making "Follow Me" an excellent show. "

Yours truly, Betty D.
